

Join Tattered Hatters at Hollins Market on Sunday, May 27th for the 27th annual Sowebo Music and Arts Festival.

Volunteers needed for 2 – 3 hour shifts 10:30 AM – 5:30 PM

Hat making workshop on Saturday May 19 at 2:00 PM at Grace International Church at Lithuanian Hall 851 Hollins St., 2nd Floor. If the gate to upstairs is locked, please call me at 443-416-7719.)

The Sowebo hat making activity is a free art activity for children of all ages

Young children have a great time decorating visors with self-stick shapes

Older children love to make princess hats, fezs and crowns

The truly dedicated “Mad Hatters” experience a real challenge and usually leave with a work-of-art.

Tattered Hatters is an all-volunteer hat making group working to promote fun, imagination and creativity in children and adults. Other hat making activities coming up at Hot August Blues Festival. Call Micha at 443-416-7719 or email michadann1@yahoo.com
